

Title of the subject	: Management of animal production
Subject leader	: Prof. Dr. Sándor Kalmár
Prerequisite	: none
Credit	: 3
Short description of the subject	: This course examines the main organizational and economical questions which needs the foundation, operation and development of animal branches. The mainer topics are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • resources (land, labour, building, machine, money), • products (meat, milk, egg, honey), • economic regulations (economic policy, standards of living, taxes and supports, credit and price policy, quota system, etc.) • more animal production • improving productivity • mechanization • higher profit or profitability • market oriented quality • environmentally friendly technology • sustainable agriculture
Compulsory reading	: Rushton, J. 2009 The Economics of Animal Health and Production. CABI Publishing
Further reading	: Taylor, R.E. and Field, T.G. 2007 Scientific Farm Animal Production (9th Edition) Rosati, A., Tewolde, A. and Mosconi, C. (Eds) 2007 Animal Production And Animal Science Worldwide (WAAP). Wageningen Pers